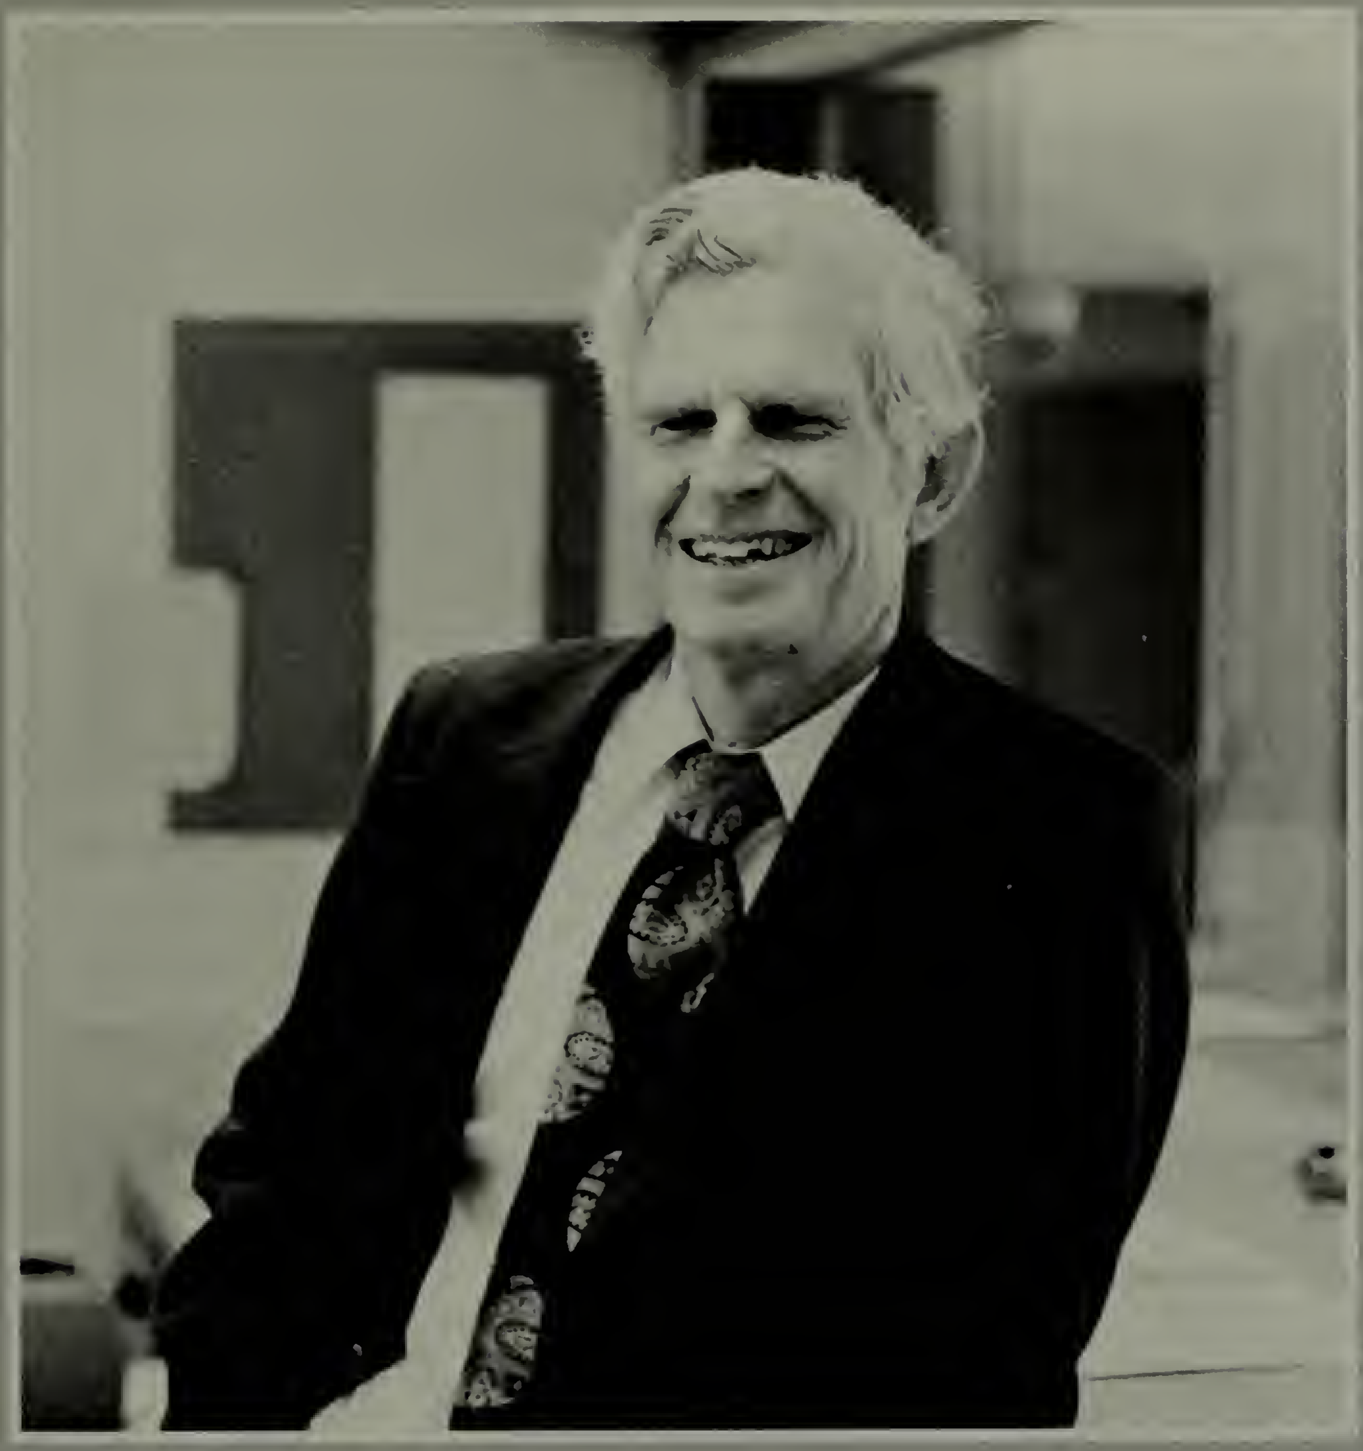
KING PHILIP

The rainbow we are making is made of patience and hard work but it will lead to our dreams. We paint color on the rainbow with each new fact or skill we learn in school. Striving to add to the beautiful arch, we step back from time to time, to gaze at the beauty we've accomplished. The bright colors show past years of hard work. The rainbow rises into the sky, colors come together, pointing ahead to the pot of gold at the rainbow's end. We have a clearer view of that pot of gold at the end of each year. And our rainbow takes us to our goal, which we are reaching for with our dreams.

Mark Lewin



DEDICATION

It is with our deepest appreciation and gratitude that we, the class of 1980, dedicate our Chieftain to you, Mr. Walter White.

In your position as assistant principal of King Philip Regional High School, you have handled your duties with a style and precision that no other can match. Your long years of hard work, combined with the humor and amiability which you used to deal with us, has set an example for us to follow and has left a strong impression that will continually guide us in the future.

Therefore, the class of 1980 felt it not only a necessity, but also an honor to dedicate our yearbook to you. Thank you for your guidance and strength. Good luck and good fortune in all your future endeavors.

ROOMS WITH CLASS

As our high school days come to a close, we leave behind the books, the endless hours of classes, the difficult tests, and the class clowns. All these have been a part of our high school years and will remain a colorful memory forever.

When each class ends, we eagerly rush into the corridors where we meet friends, stuff books into lockers, and then run to class before the late bell rings. Suddenly, all is quiet again and the only thing to hear in the hallways is an echo of conversations just ended.

K.P. BETWEEN

PRIDE MAKES THE DIFFERENCE

Fall sports at King Philip added a touch of spirit to the new school year. From football to soccer, from cross country to field hockey, the green and gold uniforms stirred pride in the hearts of fans and players alike. The spirit of competition learned in sports will serve as inspiration for future years.

SPIRIT WEEK

KING PHILIP WARRIORS

Once again, the start of Spirit Week kicked off the Homecoming festivities for this year. It all began Tuesday with T-shirt and Grub Day - the only day during the year when you can win a prize for being the best at looking the worst. Wednesday was Warrior Day, and everyone was supposed to dress up as good old King Philip. The fun continued Thursday with Clash and Tag Day - the objects being to see who could mismarch the best, and to see which guy was the most irresistible. Thursday night was the Homecoming Dance featuring Joshua Tree. Finally Friday came and K.P. continued its show of spirit by wearing green and gold, carrying Warrior balloons and ribbons to the pep rally and showing tremendous support for the football team.

CLASS OF

HOMECOMING

Chosen Homecoming Queen and her court, Nancy French, Diane Embree and Wendy Werning, respectively, presided over the festivities. As seniors, we were victorious in producing the winning float. Although the Hornets won the game, the Warrior's spirit proved to be triumphant.

The friendships that we have made during our high school years will not be easily forgotten, for the laughter, sadness—the very essence of our learning years—will be a part of us forever.

FRIENDS

A LA MODE

Fads of the year added vivid color to the halls of King Philip. Down vests, clogs, velour and chenille were the latest additions to fashion. Cowboy boots, hats, feathered hair and glasses appeared frequently to complement these styles. These trends characterized the 70's as easily as bobby socks and saddle shoes denoted the 50's.

SENIORS

Our rainbow is complete. Through all our hard work, practice, participation, spirit and dedication, we have accomplished our task. However, as we venture forth, as we test the strength of the vivid arc and try each color, we realize that there is yet another rainbow to build, another goal to achieve, another pot of gold to reach.

OUR YEARS AT K.P.

As graduation nears to complete our four years at King Philip Regional High School, the Class of 1980 leaves with a variety of emotions. Some students willingly, other sadly. But one thing is for sure, not one student can say these past four years were a waste of time as we look back on what we have shared.

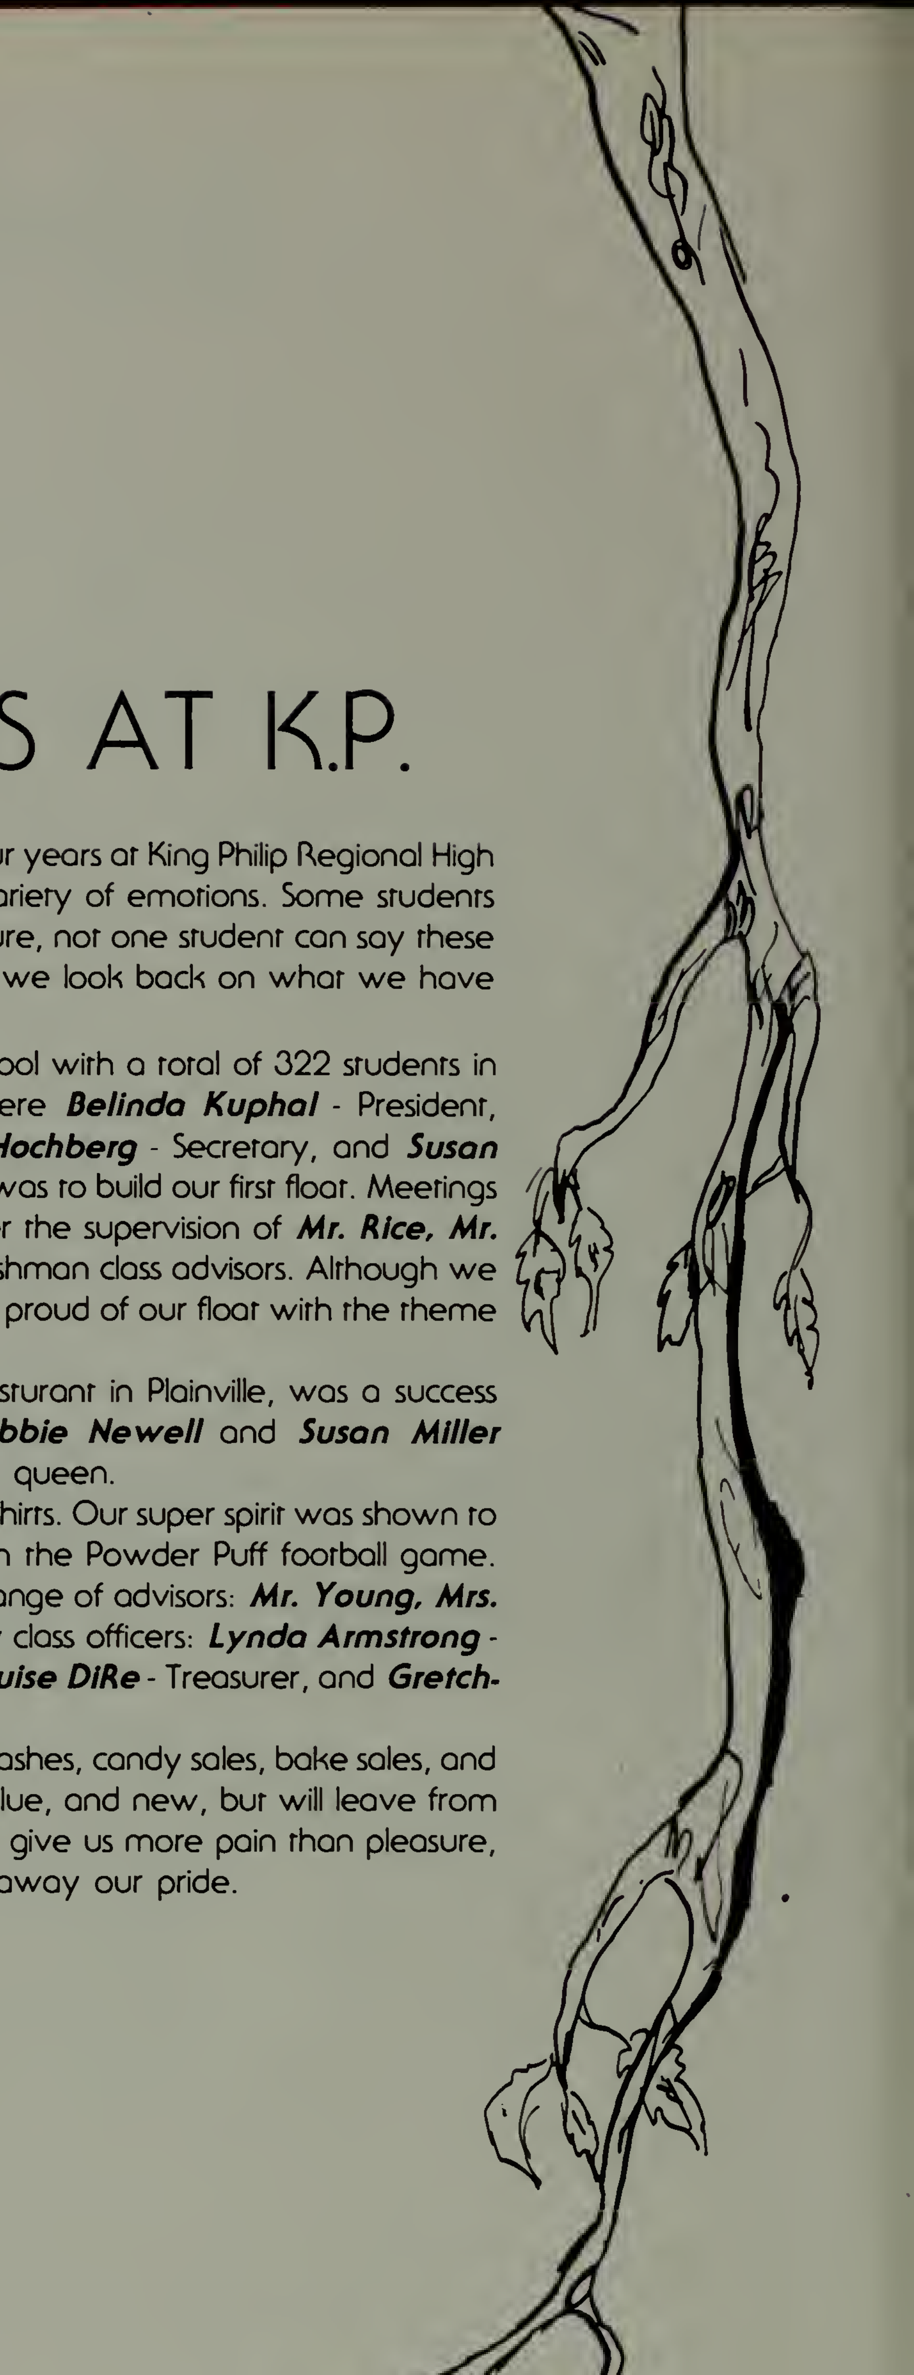
The Class of 1980 entered the high school with a total of 322 students in September of 1976. The class officers were Belinda Kuphal - President, Maura LaLumia - V. President, Susan Hochberg - Secretary, and Susan Miller - Treasurer. The first task we faced was to build our first float. Meetings were held at Chris Jelinek's house under the supervision of Mr. Rice, Mr. Alan White, and Mr. Lombard, , our freshman class advisors. Although we didn't come in first place, most of us were proud of our float with the theme "K.P.Skins the Tigers".

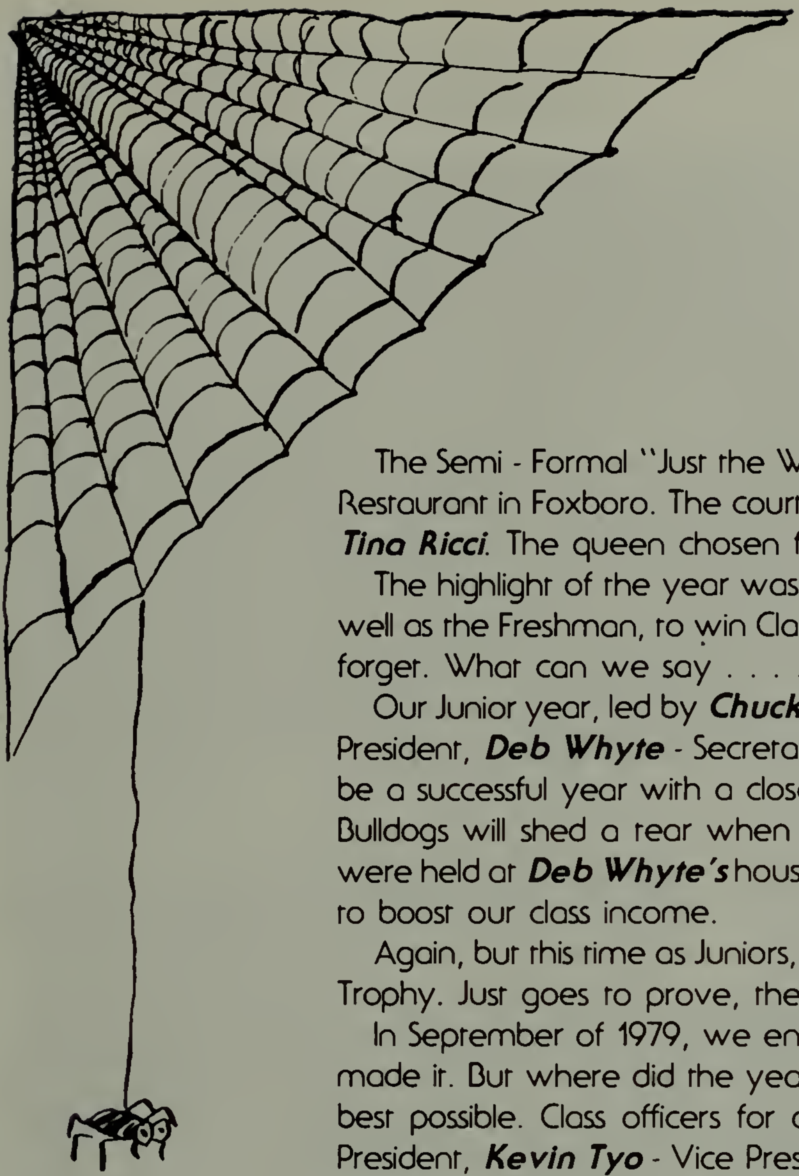
The Semi - Formal, held at Sandy's Resturant in Plainville, was a success with the freshman sitting proud as Debbie Newell and Susan Miller represented our class as the court to the queen.

To raise money, we sold candy and t - shirts. Our super spirit was shown to all as the freshman and sophomores won the Powder Puff football game.

As sophomores, we entered with a change of advisors: Mr. Young, Mrs. Brennan, and Mrs. Kelly, as well as new class officers: Lynda Armstrong - President, Sue Amoling - V. President, Louise DiRe - Treasurer, and Gretchen Grube - Secretary.

Our sophomore year began with car washes, candy sales, bake sales, and another float. "Foxboro will arrive gold, blue, and new, but will leave from K.P. stamped black and blue" seemed to give us more pain than pleasure, but it was our float. No one could take away our pride.





The Semi - Formal "Just the Way You Are" was held at the Red Snapper Restaurant in Foxboro. The court chosen for our class was Claire Butler and Tina Ricci. The queen chosen for the eveving was our Diane Theriault.

The highlight of the year was dominating over the Juniors and Seniors as well as the Freshman, to win Class Competition Night. Surely a night never to forget. What can we say . . . . . we were awesome!

Our Junior year, led by Chuck Owen as President, Lynda Armstrong - V. President, Deb Whyte - Secretary, and Louise DiRe - Treasurer, proved to be a successful year with a close fight for 1st place with our float, "Canton Bulldogs will shed a tear when K. P. makes them hide in fear." Meetings were held at Deb Whyte's house. Candy sales and other fund raisers helped to boost our class income.

Again, but this time as Juniors, we proudly accepted the Class Competition Trophy. Just goes to prove, the CLASS OF '80 is Number One!

In September of 1979, we entered the high school as Seniors. We finally made it. But where did the years go? Being our last year, we made it the best possible. Class officers for our Senior year were Dennis McCusker - President, Kevin Tyo - Vice President, Deb Whyte - Secretary, and Peggy Blenkiron - Treasurer. Mr. Young, Mr. Sumner, Mrs. Brennan and Mrs. Kelley were true advisors. They were there when we needed them and for that we owe them very special thanks.

Our Senior Superlative Supper was a success, along with the Senior Prom (theme: "Always and Forever"), and our class trip. We at last laughed in the face of defeat as we won the float competition on Homecoming Day. Our slogan was "K. P. Warriors will do their best to kill the Hornets in their nest." Our long nights of making flowers at Beth Cosentino's really paid off. K.P. was proud to represented by Nancy French as Queen and Diane Embree and Wendy Werning as her court.

On Thanksgiving Day, Mary Donovan and Debbie Bezema traveled to Franklin to represent K.P. as our court.

As the CLASS OF 1980, we grew together, learned together, smiled together, and cried together in victory and defeat. Together . . . what we will always be deep in our hearts, though the years may pass. Our high school years will never be forgotten, nor will the CLASS OF 1980 . . . the CLASS WITH CLASS!

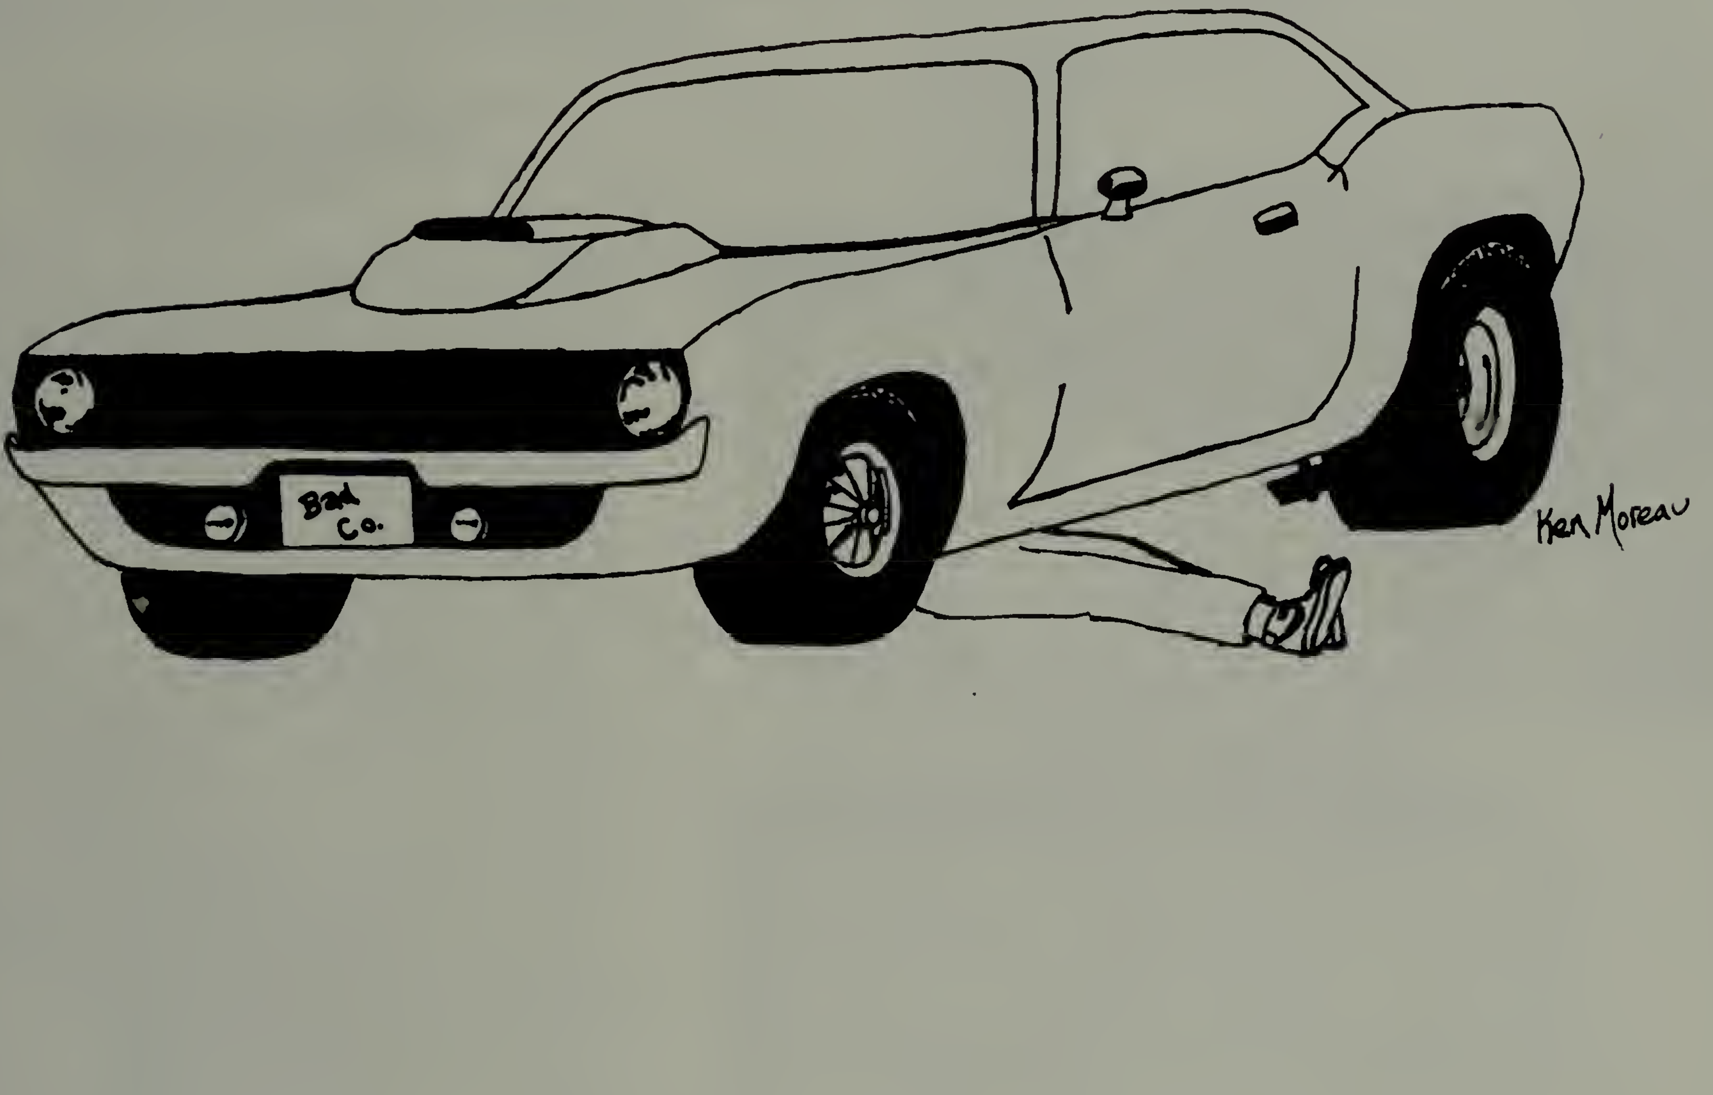
VOCATIONAL



Building, fixing, repairing, and creating: that is what keeps this world going. Whether working on a small engine or on a house, goals are always being sought. Dreams form and then paint the colors of the rainbow as they become a reality. Hard work is involved, but when you are done you have developed a useful skill.

GRAPHICS

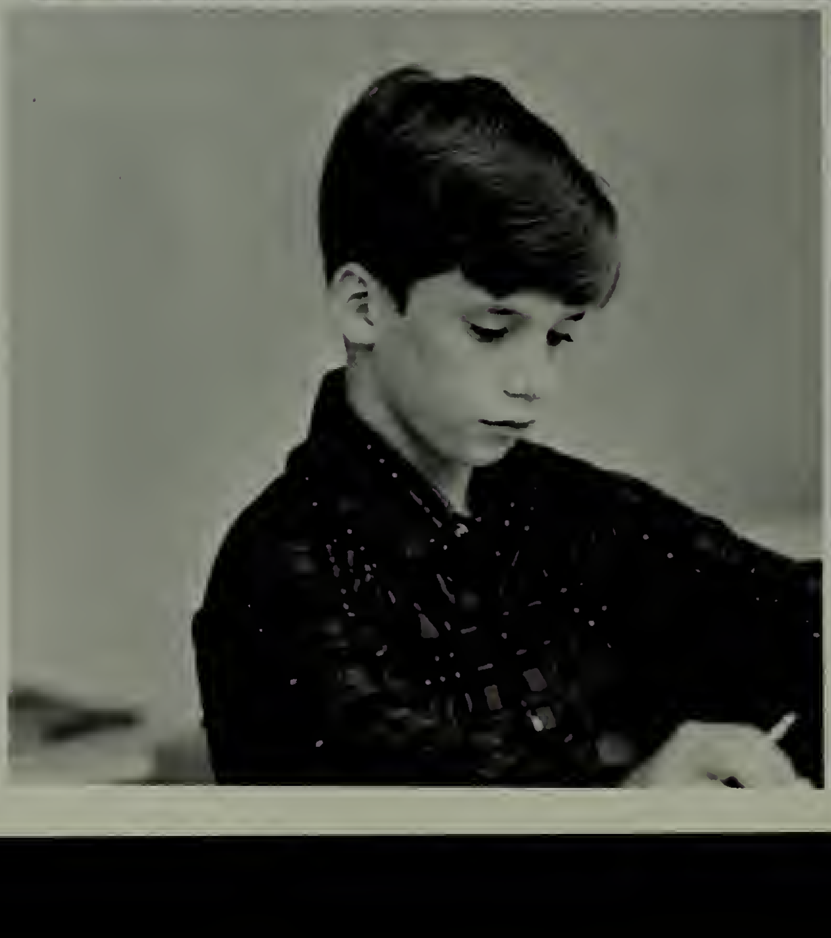
D. Parenaude

Liz Pierce

Heather
Kohut

Ron Daire

Shawn Canray



Technical Drawing provides an in-depth study of pictorial views- isometrics, obliques and cabinets. The student learns the use of drafting instruments to produce technical illustrations, descriptive geometry and auxiliary views.

Theresa Andrews

The Office Occupations programs provide students with a wide range of skills for worthwhile employment in general clerical, secretarial/stenographic, or accounting/data processing positions. A few of the many office careers students qualify for are: accounting clerk, secretary, clerk typist, file clerk and receptionist.

Marianne Doyle

Polly Pfeffer

Joan Richards

BUSINESS

Students in millwork learn the skills needed to build store cabinets, display units, kitchen and lavatory cabinets, as well as gaining experience in the field of furniture repair and construction. The phase of house carpentry deals with the construction of wood framework in buildings, installation of moldings, wood paneling, cabinets, window sashes, door frames, stairs and hardware. Through these activities, the students learn how to use hand and mechanical woodworking tools and machinery

CHILD CARE

Patti Fisher

Patty Fisher, Colleen O'Connor

Sierri Wideberg, Sara Rose

Child Care enables the students to work directly with children. They study their habits, attitudes and character. Through many activities the student learns about the child and is able to understand his or her behavior.

Karen Ludwig

DECA

Distributive Education enables the student to work with sales, finances, stock, inventory, bookkeeping, and public relations. By working in the school store they experience the many duties of management and retailing.

In this program, the student has the opportunity to learn about the construction, function and basic operations of small engines and mechanincal devices. Learning while working enables the student to figure out the problems and errors of the machinery breakdowns by repairing them.

ELECTRICAL

The knowledge of electrical theory, how electricity works, how it is generated, controlled, distributed and put to use is studied in the electrical shop. Students are taught about advancing technology by wiring various types of lighting fixtures, switches, appliances, power tools, signs, transformers, motors and controllers of low and high voltages.

Knowledge is free for those who seek it, and the gift of knowledge is given only by those who care enough to introduce color into young minds. Like the many colors in the rainbow, there are many different people involved in the giving of knowledge. Each beautiful, each adding a color to our lives and theirs as together we learn.

FACULTY

Mr. Donald Murphy, Principal

You stand on the threshold of a new decade with a sense of relief at having finally made it, a sense of anticipation and perhaps uncertainty as you look before you, and a sense of melancholia because of the people you leave behind. Be strengthened with the lessons you have learned at K.P. Look through this book and recall the warmth gained from friendships based on trust and caring, re - experience the satisfaction gained from a job well done, remember the thrill of achieving the goal that oft seemed so distant.

As you join the rest of us in attempting to deal with the demands of every day living, use these lessons well. Good luck and God Speed.

ENGLISH

Miss Alter: "Thank goodness if you possess a sense of humor . . . and can laugh at yourself as well as others. Humor is the mark of balance between the emotions and the intellect."

Mrs. Bagnell: "I had a date with a short man."

Mr. Black: "Hold the phone!"

Mr. Keimach: "What's wrong with this tie?"

Mr. Lombard: "Best of luck to the class of '80. Your academic, athletic, and social achievements will long be remembered."

Mr. McEachern: "It is the idea that is real, the thought behind the spoken word-not the word itself."

Mrs. Santsaver: "Hey, hey, hey!"

FOREIGN LANGUAGE

Mr. Landaux. "EN FRANCAIS!!!"

Mrs. McNeil: "Ay Ay Chihuahua!"

Miss Vine: "Learn a Foreign Language and discover a new culture!"

Mrs. Wallace: "Parlez plus fort!; N'Ecrivez pas sur les feuilles!"

Mrs. Watkins: "No comprendo ingles."

MATH

Mrs. Fagan: "That's the first mistake I've ever made in my life."

Miss Flaherty: "Practice makes perfect."

Miss Krol: "There is something definitely wrong here." "And Justice For All"—Al Pacino.

SCIENCE

Mrs. Casper: "You never fail, until you stop trying."

Mr. Cormier: "Put it in and turn the crank."

Mr. Faulk: "Noli res subdole facere."

Mr. Lazzarra: "Do it with compost."

Mr. Nosiglio: "Let us be careful of a little knowledge."

Mr. Schmidt: "Get the point?—Do you understand?"

SOCIAL STUDIES

Ms. Bremer: "Just because people in other cultures are different from us does not make them strange. In fact variety makes the world more interesting."

Mr. Brennan: "Obstacles are what you see when you take your eyes off the goal."

Miss Couto: "Well, anyway."

Mr. Lepere: "Look for the good in mankind, and that's what you'll find."

Mr. Morgan: "This world is filled with incompetents. And the buck starts here."

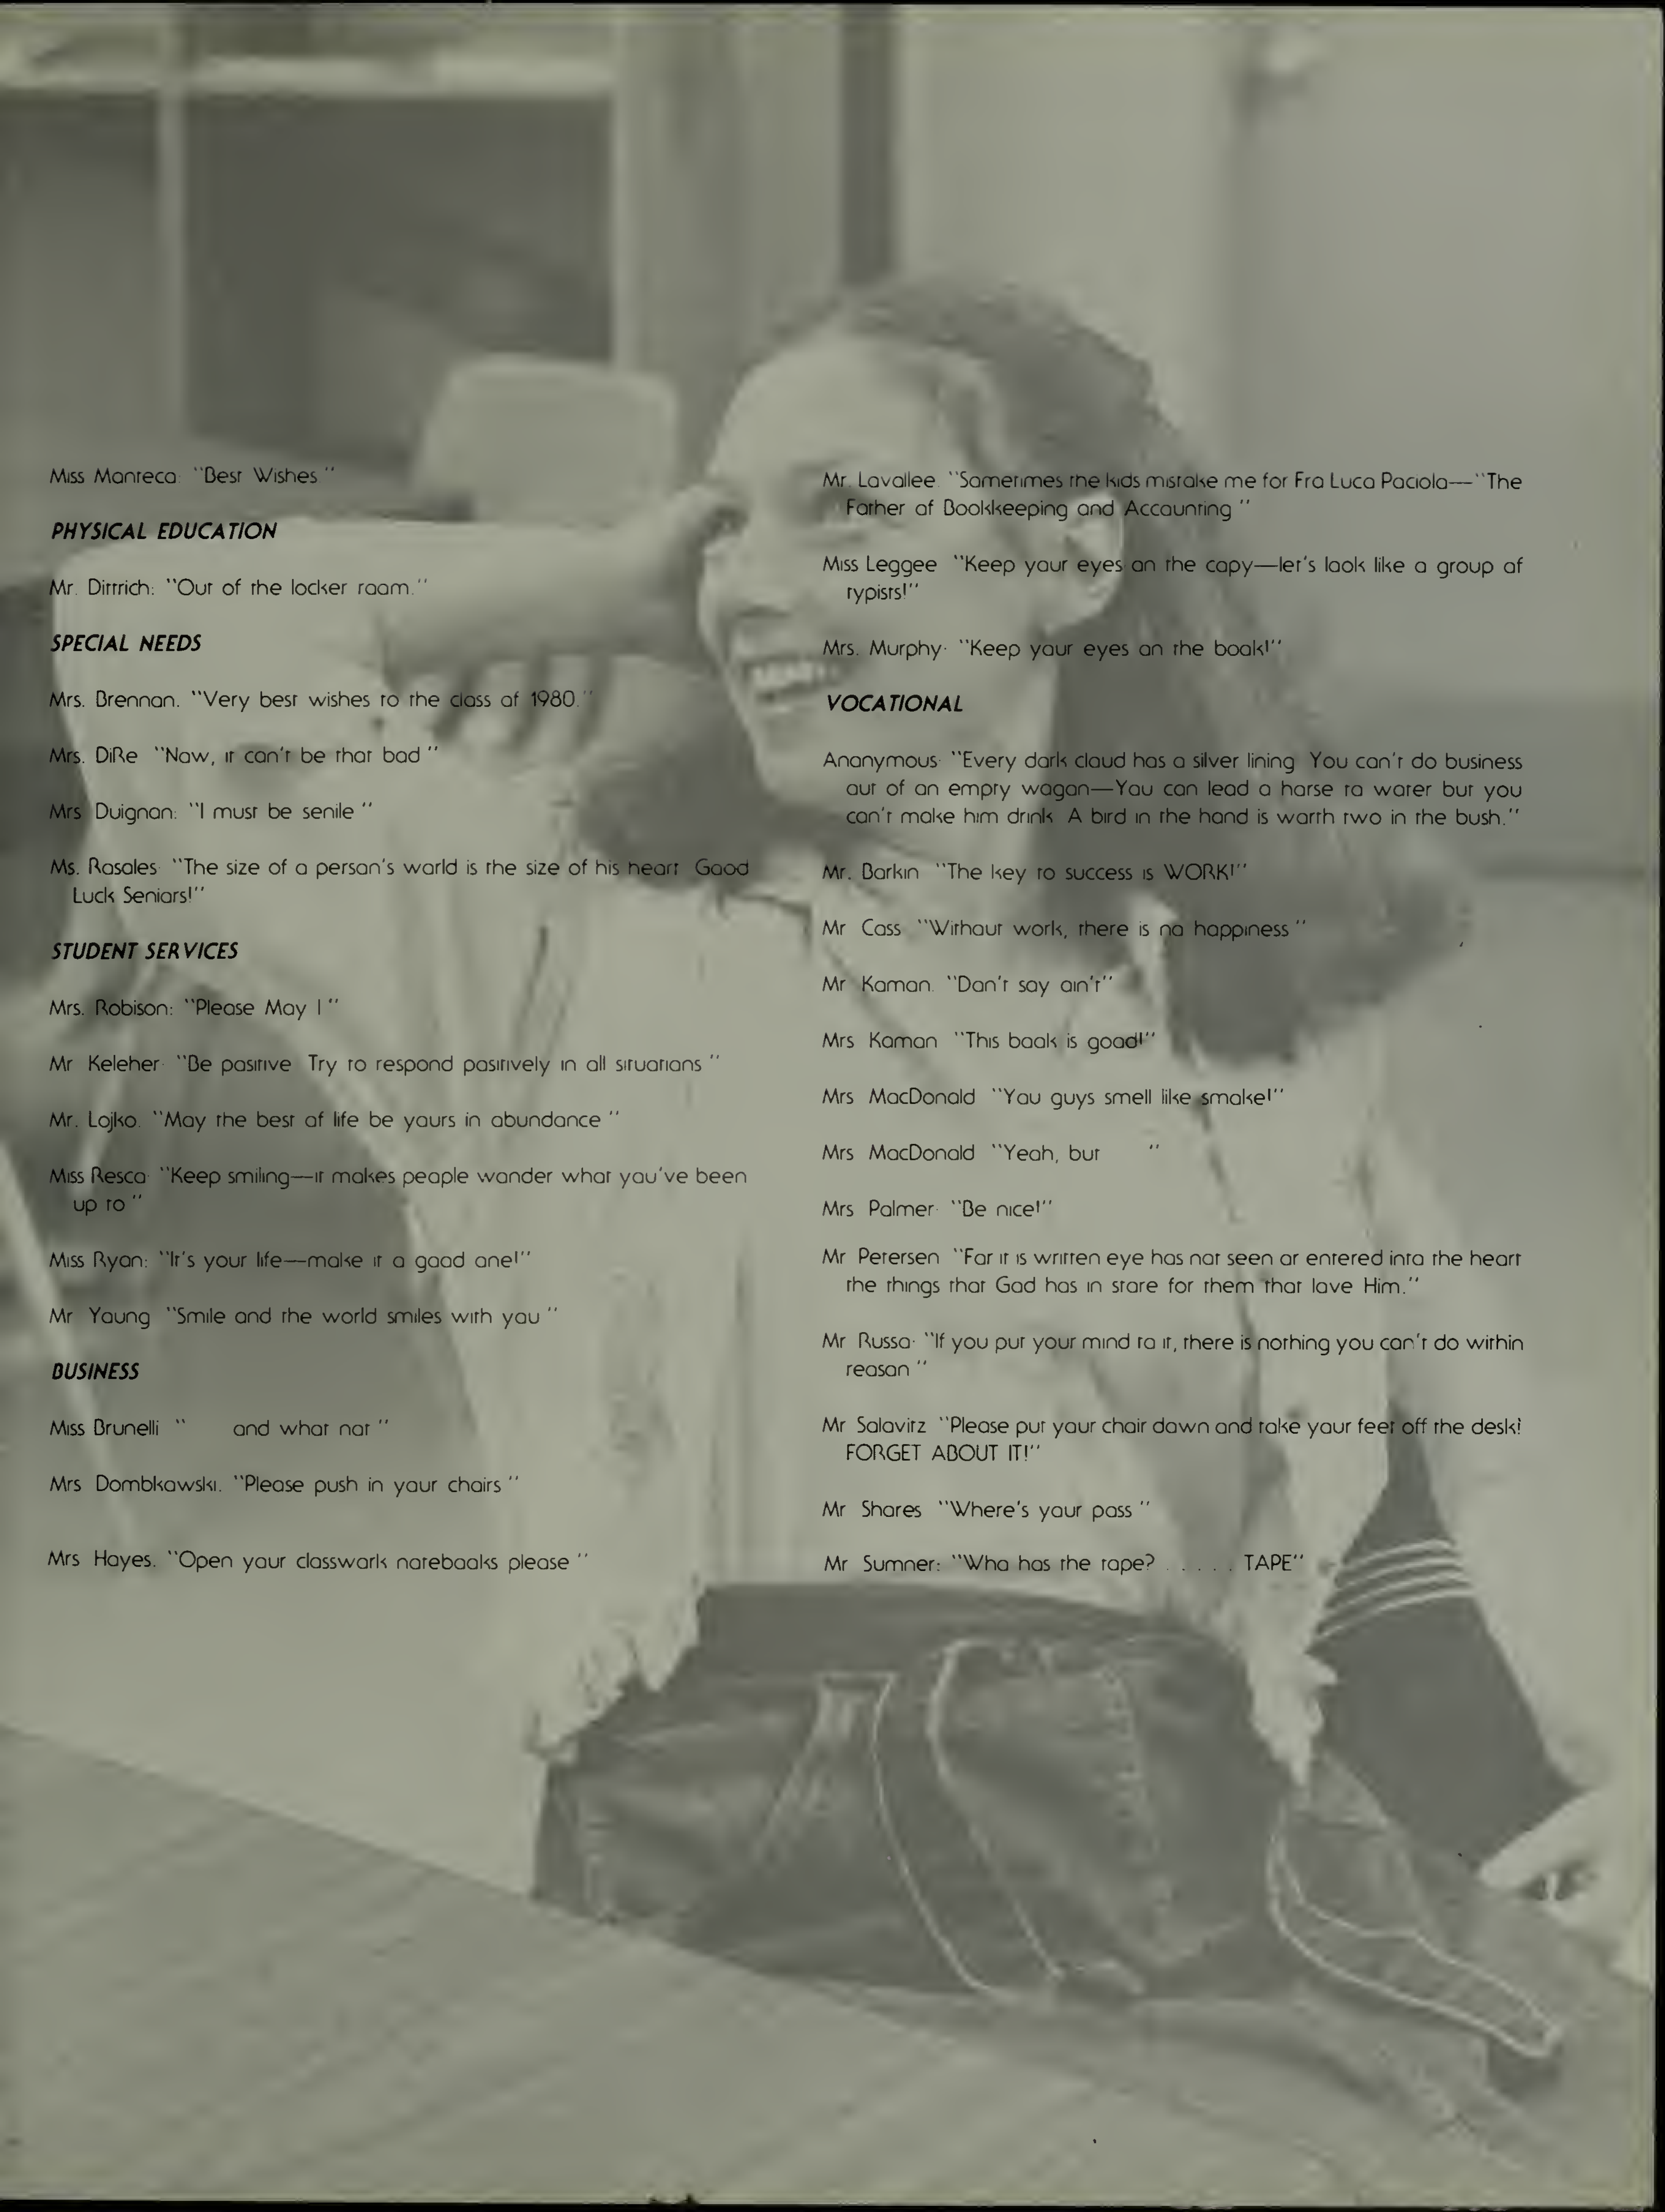
Mr. Perry: "Our computer does what we tell it to do. We cannot blame it for our mistakes."
"NO one ever lost a job for knowing too much math."

Mr. Weintraub: "It all adds up to keeping track of things and not running into variables."

Mrs. Westfield: "Would you like to hear a good joke?"

Mr. Dwyer: "Try to unleash the best in us, to give us hope and courage."

Mr. Gallipeau: "The race doesn't always go to the swiftest, nor the war to the strongest. But that's the best way to bet."



Miss Manteca: "Best Wishes."

PHYSICAL EDUCATION

Mr. Dittrich: "Out of the locker room."

SPECIAL NEEDS

Mrs. Brennan: "Very best wishes to the class of 1980."

Mrs. DiRe: "Now, it can't be that bad."

Mrs. Duignan: "I must be senile."

Ms. Rosales: "The size of a person's world is the size of his heart. Good Luck Seniors!"

STUDENT SERVICES

Mrs. Robison: "Please May I."

Mr. Keleher: "Be positive. Try to respond positively in all situations."

Mr. Lojko: "May the best of life be yours in abundance."

Miss Resca: "Keep smiling—it makes people wonder what you've been up to."

Miss Ryan: "It's your life—make it a good one!"

Mr. Young: "Smile and the world smiles with you."

BUSINESS

Miss Brunelli: " and what not."

Mrs. Dombkowski: "Please push in your chairs."

Mrs. Hayes: "Open your classwork notebooks please."

Mr. Lavallee: "Sometimes the kids mistake me for Fra Luca Paciola—"The Father of Bookkeeping and Accounting."

Miss Leggee: "Keep your eyes on the copy—let's look like a group of typists!"

Mrs. Murphy: "Keep your eyes on the book!"

VOCATIONAL

Anonymous: "Every dark cloud has a silver lining. You can't do business out of an empty wagon—You can lead a horse to water but you can't make him drink. A bird in the hand is worth two in the bush."

Mr. Barkin: "The key to success is WORK!"

Mr. Cass: "Without work, there is no happiness."

Mr. Kaman: "Don't say ain't."

Mrs. Kaman: "This book is good!"

Mrs. MacDonald: "You guys smell like smoke!"

Mrs. MacDonald: "Yeah, but "

Mrs. Palmer: "Be nice!"

Mr. Petersen: "For it is written eye has not seen or entered into the heart the things that God has in store for them that love Him."

Mr. Russo: "If you put your mind to it, there is nothing you can't do within reason."

Mr. Salavitz: "Please put your chair down and take your feet off the desk! FORGET ABOUT IT!"

Whether we participate in a game or cheer on our "fighting Warrors" from the sidelines, K.P. sports add brilliance to each color of the rainbow. It is not the number of points scored, but the teamwork, practice, and the determination of all the players that shows ability and incredible endurance. Every member sets his or her own personal goal, and the achievement of that goal makes it worthwhile. These ingredients mixed with pride, make sports at King Philip rewarding.

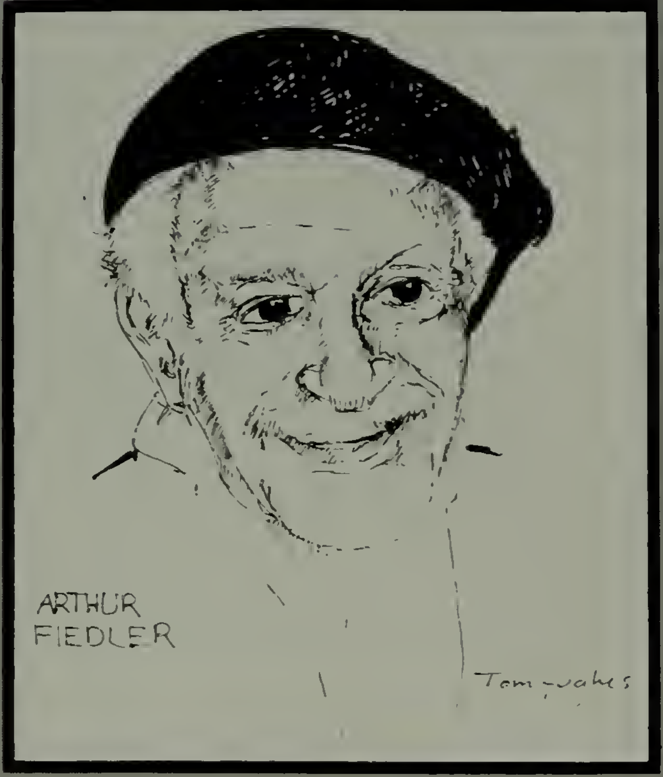
THE YEAR IN REVIEW
1979-1980

Caspian Sea
U. S. S. R.
IRAN
AFGHANISTAN
PAKISTAN
Persian Gulf

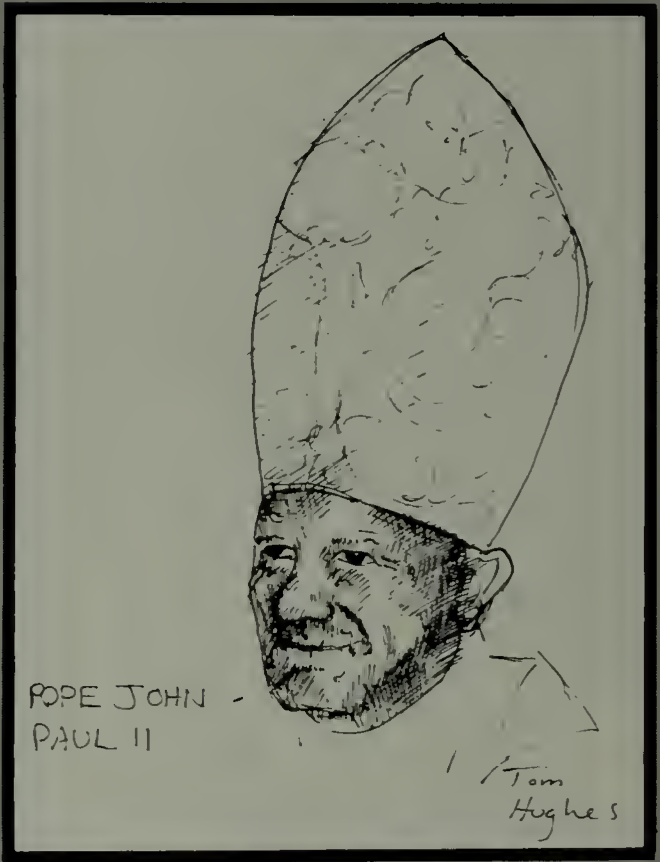
In January, Russian troops moved into Afghanistan in an attempt to take control of the oil fields in the Middle East. The United States reacted angrily. President Carter said that an act to take the Persian Gulf "will be regarded as an assault against the United States . . . will be repelled by any means necessary including military force."

Arthur Fiedler, also known as "the Maestro", died in July at the age of 85. He had been the conductor of the Boston Pops for the past 50 years.



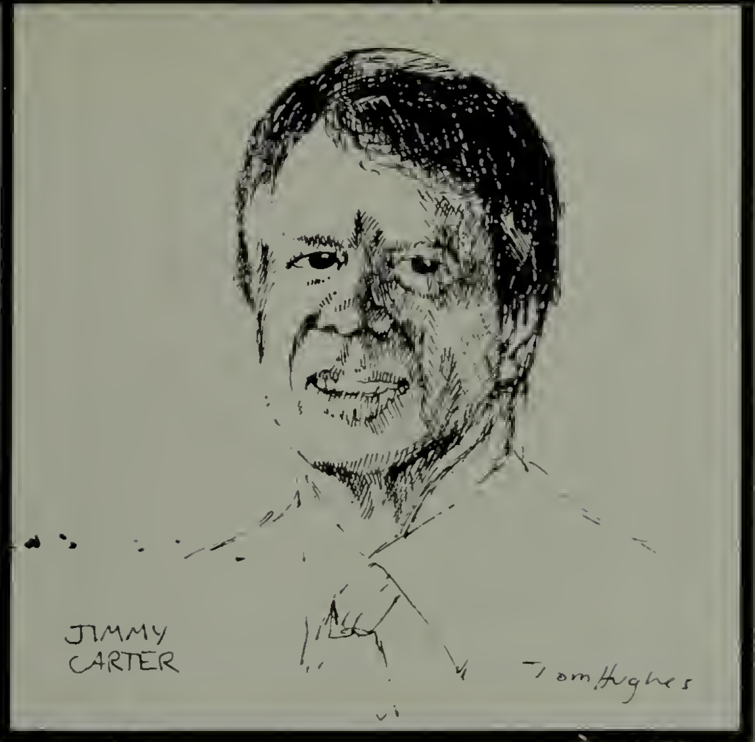
ARTHUR
FIEDLER
Tom Hughes

Ayatollah Khomeini, the religious revolutionary leader in Iran, and his college-student followers took over the American embassy and held the people as hostages for over 100 days.



POPE JOHN -
PAUL II
Tom Hughes

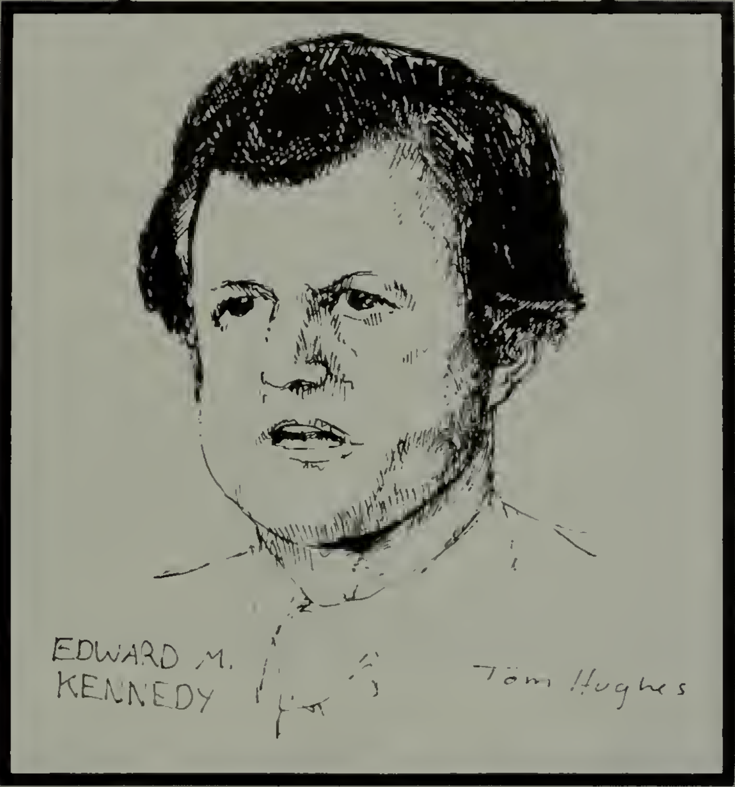
Pope John Paul II, the first non-Italian Pope in over four hundred years, was elected Pope in 1979. On October 1st the Pope came to Boston and gave a mass on the Common.



James Earl Carter was elected President in 1976. During his 1st term, his foreign politics included peace talks between Egypt and Israel.

SNOW? The winter of 1979-1980 consisted of very few snow storms, and this year's snow fall of less than 2" in Boston broke the previous record of 1932 for the least amount of snowfall.

Edward Kennedy, also known as "Ted", ran for the office of President in 1980. Kennedy was a senator from Mass. and made this state a strong basis for his campaign.



Our special thanks to The Woon. Call and H. Topham for their assistance with this page.

NO TURN ON RED — Mass. legislation initiated the "right turn on red" law in 1980, but the law only applies where there aren't signs as pictured. Another red check for the government.

KP AT ITS BEST

I hope my nails are dry
before the next play!

GET DOWN!

Don't be a wimp!
GO FOR IT!

Boy! These lemons are sour!

Good to the last drop.

Kick me one more time and . . .

"Take me to your leader!"

FROM THE EDITORS:

As we complete the final pages of this yearbook, we realize that this is not the end of the book. Each event recorded here - each person pictured - has a rippling effect with it as a pebble has when tossed on a calm pond.

The pages of the book must end, but the people and events recorded in this masterpiece will go on and on to make impressions on other people and other events.

In all, we have tried to bring together, in the best way we know, the things that have happened and the faces you have all seen. We feel we have accomplished such a task: to compile a year of spirit, joy, courage, and new beginnings between two covers; and to establish a few lasting memories.

As we turn off the lights after the final deadline, we realize the fullness of a yearbook, especially the 1980 Chieftain.
